

I support legislation to require broadcasters to identify how many hours of closed-captioned broadcasting they are providing. As a consumer who is hard-of-hearing and unable to watch TV without captioning, compliance of broadcasters is vitally important to me.